Constitutional Amendment

ARTICLE 1, SECTION 17 Amending Article I, Section 17 of the State Constitution

Proposing an amendment to the State Constitution identical to a proposed amendment to Section 17 of Article I of the State Constitution which was approved by a statewide vote in 1998. The Supreme Court of Florida struck the 1998 amendment in a ruling which four of the seven justices found that the ballot summary was inaccurate. The proposed amendment merely authorizes the death penalty for capital crimes and explicitly authorizes retrospective changes in the method of execution. This amendment changes the prohibition against "cruel or unusual punishment," currently provided in Section 17 of Article I of the State Constitution, to a prohibition against "cruel or unusual punishment" to conform with the wording of the Eighth Amendment to the United States Constitution. The amendment would prevent state courts, including the Florida Supreme Court, from treating the state constitutional prohibition against cruel or unusual punishment as being more restrictive than the federal constitutional prohibition.
